

Next Tuesday night one Mar Beer will climb into the boxing ring with a colored youth, Joe Louis, and it is presumed that the winner will be Mar Beer. Joe Louis is a champion of the heavyweight championship of the world.

The colored race has produced many splendid boxers and fighters, but the Times-Virginian can see no justification for mixed races. There are many fine colored boxers, but they are not to be compared to the white ones. If Joe Louis is to be recognized, let him fight a white man. Let him fight a white man who is as good as he is. Let him fight a white man who is as good as he is.

What Steps It Disc.

Many are looking to the conference at Geneva in their hope for peaceful settlement of the Italian-Ethiopian quarrel. However, we are of the opinion that just now the most practical hope for peace is the British Navy.

And Now To The Right

Franklin Roosevelt is a smart political analyst. During the past session of congress he went a long way to the "left" to head off any popular appeal Henry Long might have, virtually "scooped" him.

Now with the King of the Louisiana annals celebration out of the way means of a luncheon assassination you can look for Roosevelt to go equally as far to the "right." And it will be good, because there is no where else for Roosevelt's following to go but to Roosevelt in 1937.
